General session 2:30 pm – 3:30 pm

Presenter: Markus Maciulaitis, National Sales Manager, Bookery Education

Topic: Clarity English – Interactive Computer Programs for ESL Learners

In this session we will briefly look at some of Clarity's new ICT resources for assisting students with their English and Literacy skills. We will then discuss effective strategies for encouraging teachers and students to get the most out of these resources in the classroom and in a self-access context. We will look at some case studies of how the programs have been effectively used by two colleges and we will finally discuss integration with VLEs such as Moodle and Blackboard.

This will be an interactive session with lots of discussion!

Afternoon tea 3:30 pm – 4:00pm

A Choice of:

Workshop 1 (4:00 pm – 5:30 pm)

Presenter: Giuliana Mecoli, Western Metropolitan Regional Office

Topic: Supporting EAL assessment and reporting: An introducing to the DEECD EAL video student work samples for speaking and listening and reading

This interactive workshop will enable participants to become familiar with the newly developed EAL student work samples. The listening and speaking and reading video samples are an additional resource within the DEECD ESL Developmental Continuum. These student work samples aim to:

- assist EAL specialists and mainstream teachers with EAL student assessment and reporting
  - increase the number of mainstream teachers using the ESL Developmental Continuum for assessment, reporting and teaching of EAL students
  - provide samples of 'good EAL assessment practice'
- In addition, workshop participants will have an opportunity to discuss EAL assessment issues in general, as well as, consider the application of these materials to their specific context.

Important: Participants will need to bring a laptop with a DVD player.
